

The ECT team is back at work in Beaverton conducting additional field work. This week, our team conducted lake mapping and sediment depth analysis on Ross Lake. Please say hi to our team on the ECT boat as they work to collect data around these important metrics.

We are hopeful to have information to share with the community at another informational meeting in early September. Please watch for updates!